

Plaintiff Drops Weisberg Suit

T-P 11/5/68

A U. S. District Court suit by Cuban exile and businessman Carlos Bringuier against author Harold Weisberg and two publishing firms has been dismissed by the plaintiff.

The dismissal was entered by Attys. Herbert C. Parker III and Nestor Marquez-Diaz.

The suit, for $1 million, was originally filed in Civil District Court and later transferred to federal court.

In it, Bringuier alleged that the book, "Whitewash—The Report of the Warren Report" and the magazine article, "Kennedy's Murder—Buried Proof of a Conspiracy," defamed him.

Both were written by Weisberg, of Frederick, Md.

Also named as defendants were Gambi Publications Inc. and Dell Publishing Co. Inc., publishers of the article and book, respectively.
